ISIS' Lack of Morality is the Same as Abortion Providers'

By Mark S. Gietzen

Americans rightfully recoiled at the sight of an American journalist, James Foley, being beheaded by ISIS, (The Islamic State of Iraq and Syria), on YouTube this week. The video footage is too graphic for many people to view.

But oh how easily we forget!

Since it is out-of-sight - we seem to forget the fact that this exact same human butchery and brutal beheading occurs routinely every day in every abortion facility in America!

How can we ignore the more than 3000 unseen babies that were beheaded in America today, while pointing our fingers in shame at ISIS actions in Iraq?

James Foley was guilty of nothing more than telling the truth about what is going on in our world via his excellent reporting.

Like James Foley, every aborted unborn baby is killed NOT for something they did; but rather simply for being who they are.

The victim's age does not make the violence any more, or any less brutal or morally acceptable. It is the same act!

The uncivilized violent depravity of an abortionist's brutal beheading of an unborn child is morally identical to the uncivilized violent depravity of beheading an adult or child.

Therefore, supporters of abortion lose their legitimate moral authority to condemn such acts of violence by others.

KCFL calls for an end to all unjustified violence, regardless of the victim's age!
