Dear Mark,

I am a producer for the nationally syndicated, top rated court television program "Judge Joe Brown." On "Judge Joe Brown," small claims cases from all over the nation are arbitrated, and the decisions rendered are final and legally binding. Our field researchers have selected and brought to my attention the small claims case that you have filed in the Wichita small claims court against George Tiller.

The arbitrator on "Judge Joe Brown" is Joseph Blakeney Brown Jr., a Judge of the Memphis, Tennessee Division Criminal Court, where he has served since 1990. He is a renowned jurist whose distinguished career has been profiled on a number of television programs.

As you probably know, if even if you win your case in the small claims court, the court cannot guarantee that you will collect your money in a timely fashion, if ever. If, however, you choose to arbitrate your case on "Judge Joe Brown" and win, we guarantee that you will receive the money awarded to you by the arbitrator within thirty days, plus court costs. In addition, if you choose to arbitrate your case on "Judge Joe Brown," we will guarantee you an appearance fee for appearing on the program, and we will pay the travel expenses for you and any "necessary" witness to travel to Los Angeles.
